Future Business Leaders of America Generating Greatness

Egg Harbor Township High School FBLA recognized with top honors at NJ FBLA State Leadership Conference

Egg Harbor Twp. —The NJ FBLA State Leadership Conference was held in Atlantic City, NJ on March 15 - 17 and hosted over 2,000 of New Jersey's best and brightest youth to showcase their talents as future business leaders. Thirty-six members of the Egg Harbor Township High School chapter attended and several received high honors.

Future Business Leaders of America-Phi Beta Lambda (FBLA-PBL), the largest and oldest student business organization will hold its National Leadership Conference in Anaheim, CA on June 27–July 2. Participants from around the country will attend and compete at this exciting conference to sharpen their core business skills, expand their networks, and vie for the opportunity to win over $145,000 in awards and scholarships. The students will get the opportunity to participate in more than 55 business and business-related competitive events.

The EHT FBLA Chapter is working towards building community business partnerships, corporate sponsorship, donations, and holding fund raising events which will help to provide the funding necessary for these students to compete on the national level. For those who are interested in supporting the EHT Future Business Leaders of America chapter with corporate sponsorship, donations or community partnership, please contact Ms. Eileen Duff or Ms. Kimberly DeMaggio at ehtfbla@gmail.com.

The following EHT FBLA members received high honors at the 2017 NJ FBLA State Leadership Conference. 14 of these members are eligible to compete at the National Leadership Conference in Anaheim, CA this summer:
