The character education word of the month is RESPONSIBILITY

STUDENTS OF THE WEEK

STUDENTS: Dillon Carmen, Jabrill Lee, Adrian Lopez, Jazmin Gonzalaz Osorio, Julia Keating, Erin Kee, Soteria Psilopoulos, Anna Hoang

NOMINATED BY: Mrs. Messeck

These 8 students are in Mr. DeRosa's 7th period strength and conditioning class. Every Day 1 and 2, they assist Ms. Messeck's Adapted PE class, teaching them various exercises, and working out with them. The Adapted students very much look forward to working out with their friends and show great joy! These 8 students demonstrate leadership, compassion and selflessness through engaging with these special need students during their physical education class.

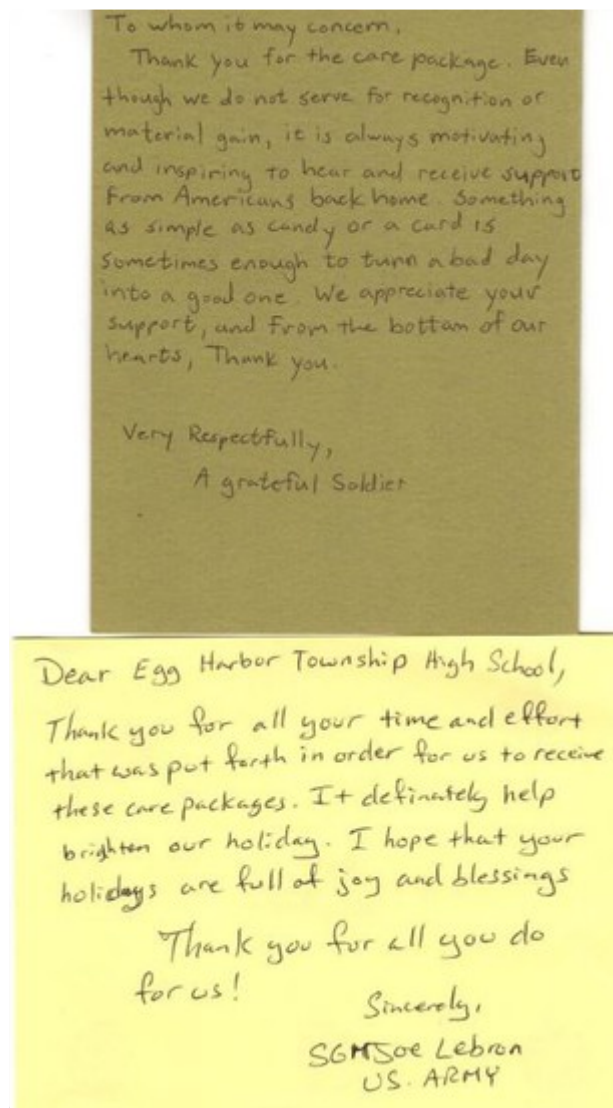

EHTHS Advances in NJ Mock Trial Competition

The Mock Trials compete against Hammonton during the first round of the New Jersey Mock Trial Competition. The 2018-2019 is a civil case that deals with a roller coaster accident. Students argued before Judges Blee and Sircusia Students defeated Hammonton and advance to the second round in Mays Landing on Tuesday, January 22nd against Atlantic City.

Messages from Our Military Overseas

A few more notes of thanks came in last week and I want to make sure everyone has the opportunity to read them. Seeing a handwritten note from a soldier far from home just makes you stop and look at your day from a different perspective. So proud that as a school we were able to brighten their day as well.

WEEKLY GAME/SCORE REPORT

Bowling

Boys and Girls varsity bowling has a busy week with three matches against Kingsway, Deptford, and Hammonton. On Monday, the Boys varsity program fought a hard match against Kingsway that ended with a nail biting tie as a result of 1 pin! The boys are currently 7-0-1 with two away matches on Wednesday and Thursday. The girls varsity program beat Kingsway in all games and are now 7-1-0. Please wish these athletes the best of luck as the next few weeks are going to determine our rankings in the Tri County Conference.

Boys Basketball

The Boys varsity team had another busy week going 1-2 in their most recent games.

1/9 the boys lost a tough battle with Pleasantville at home 64-70. 1/11 the boys won a tough road contest against a talented Vineland team 75-67. 1/14 the team dropped a tough one to rival Mainland on the road 55-71. The team looks to get back on the winning side and qualify for the state Group IV playoffs on 1/16 at Bridgeton. They will finish the week on the road against Ocean City on Saturday 1/19 in Ocean City's annual Coaches vs Cancer game. The program will be hosting their Coaches vs Cancer Game next Tuesday, January 22 against Millville.

Girls Basketball

1/11/19 EHT (61) vs. Vineland (45) WIN - After 10 consecutive away games, the Lady Eagles had our opening night against the Vineland Fighting Clan. To make things even busier, it was EHT Youth Night. It was awesome to have the EHT Travel and Recreation Girls Basketball Players there cheering us on. We played smart and composed the entire game. Sierra Hegh had a record setting night finishing with 26 points, going 7-9 from three point land, and grabbing 10 rebounds. Lauren Baxter controlled our offense with 19 points and 4 assists. As a team we had 15 assists and it was nice to see the ball go into the hoop. 1/14/19 EHT (27) vs. Mainland (47) LOSS - We gave Mainland a pretty good scare going into down 18-20 at halftime. Mainland came out with some tough Defense in the second half, but played tough until the end. Hegh and Baxter combined for 15 points.

JV Girls Basketball

EHT 30 vs. Mainland 31

The Lady Eagles kicked off our first three game week schedule by hosting the Mustangs on Monday afternoon. The Eagles kept the game close the entire time, hitting key shots and playing tough team defense. In the final 30 seconds, Yani Davis hit a crucial 3-point shot in the corner to put the eagles within 1. After fouling and sending the Mustangs to the foul line, we still were only down by 1 point with 1.9 seconds to go. The Eagles pressed full court and Kierstyn Zinckgraf deflected a ball that Hayley Henderson was able to steal. Unfortunately, time was not on our side but the team handled pressure very well and learned a lot from this close game. Player of the game: Hayley Henderson

EHT 39 vs. Bridgeton 28

The Eagles played a very scrappy Bulldogs team Wednesday afternoon. The Eagles kept their composure and made adjustments on defense to get the W. Freshman Katrina Suarez brought the energy to the floor when she subbed in and Sofie Palumbo played tight defense. Player of the game: Katrina Suarez

Swimming

Boys swimming lost a close meet with St. Augustine Prep and look to bounce back against Mainland. Girls Swimming look to continue their unbeaten streak in the CAL against Mainland. Diving's Lindsay Rudolf finished first at Ocean City's batch dive meet.
